

Achievements

NJAOPS is proud to announce the following achievements by our members.

Paul Kruger, DO, of Stratford, was presented the prestigious American Osteopathic Foundation Educator of the Year Award at the AOA House of Delegates meeting in Chicago this July. Dr. Kruger is Associate Dean of Academic Affairs and Professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology at UMDNJ-School of Osteopathic Medicine.

Former NJAOPS president and board member Alvin Dubin, DO, of Cherry Hill, was awarded the AOA Presidential Citation in recognition of his years of service to the osteopathic medical profession. Dr. Dubin, a retired otolaryngologist and facial plastic surgeon, is the executive director of the certifying board the American Osteopathic Colleges of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology—Head and Neck Surgery.

Joseph Farrell, DO, of Medford, was honored with a Letter of Commendation by the AOA in recognition of his dedication, service and leadership on behalf of the osteopathic medical profession. Dr. Farrell is an orthopedic surgeon with Reconstructive Orthopedics, PA.

Alexander Doctoroff, DO, of Clark, was elected president of the New Jersey Dermatological Society. In addition to maintaining his private practice in cosmetic, medical and surgical dermatology, Dr. Doctoroff teaches dermatology residents at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in East Orange where he serves as assistant chairman of the Dermatology Department. Dr. Doctoroff is also a clinical assistant professor at the UMDNJ-School of Osteopathic Medicine.

Send your professional achievements to The Journal so we can share them with your colleagues. Email a brief description to bsmolen@njosteo.com for inclusion in the next issue.
